

Total Employees

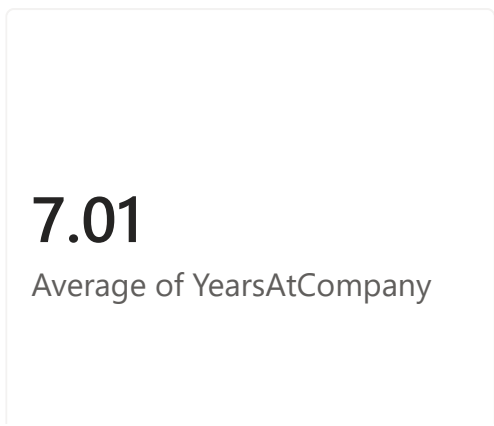

Attrition Rate

Avg Monthly Salary

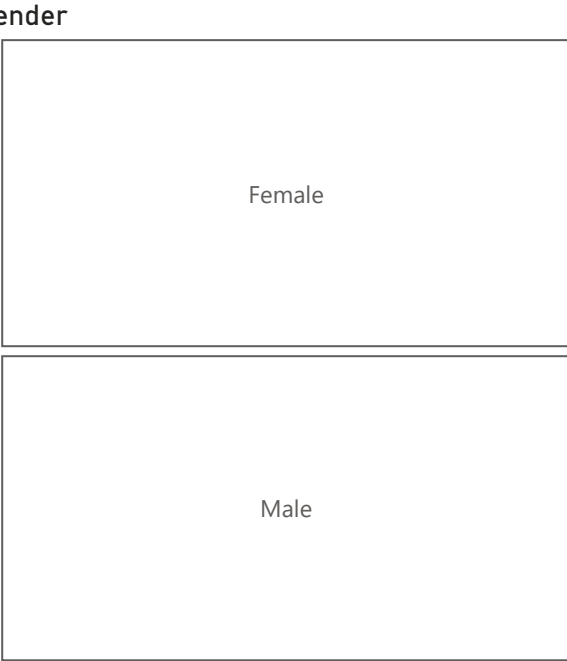

Avg Years at Company

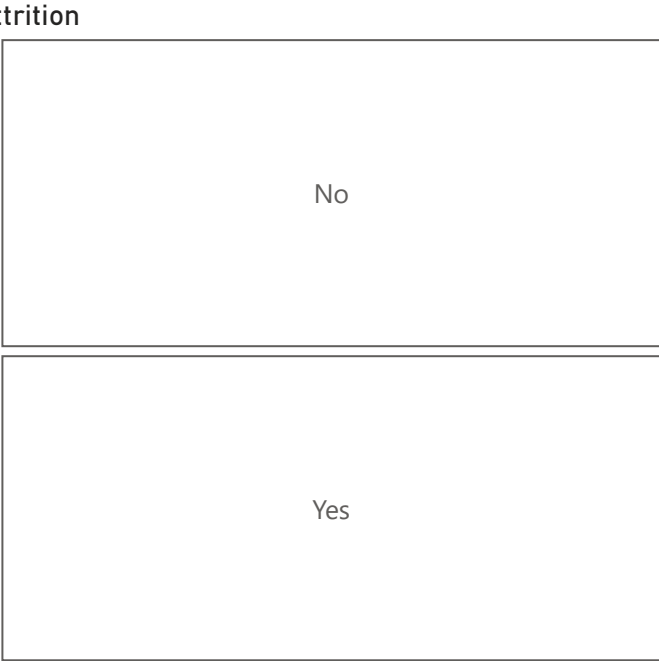

Filter by Department

Filter by Gender

Filter by Attrition

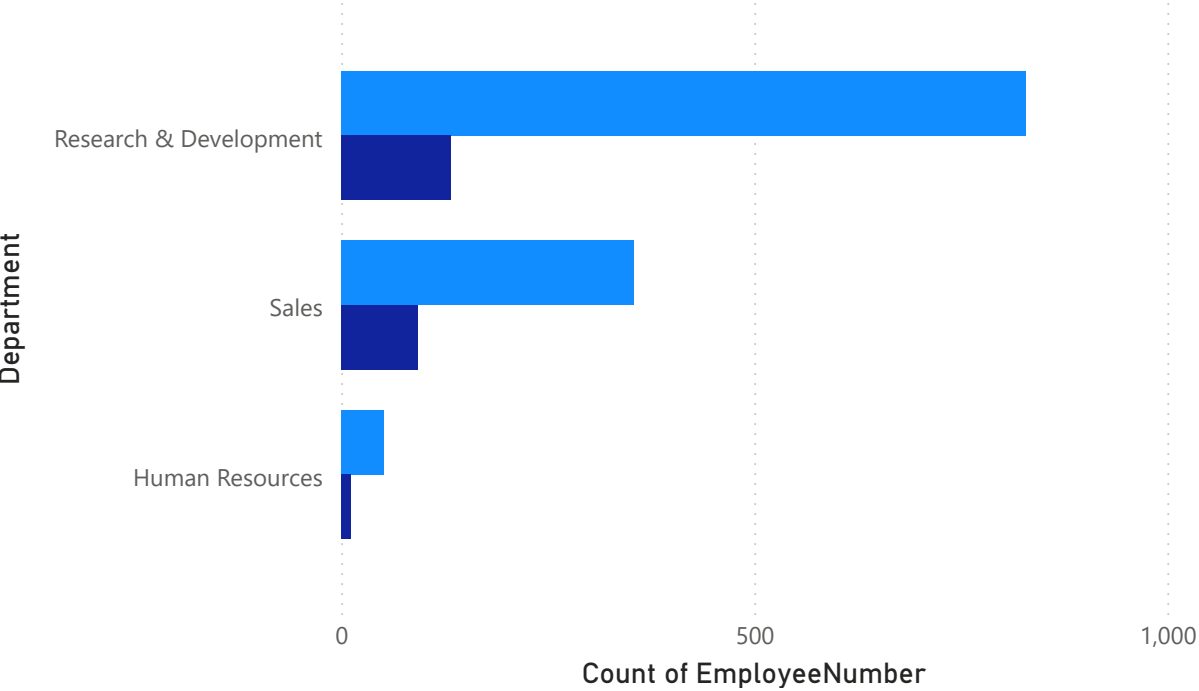

Attrition by Department

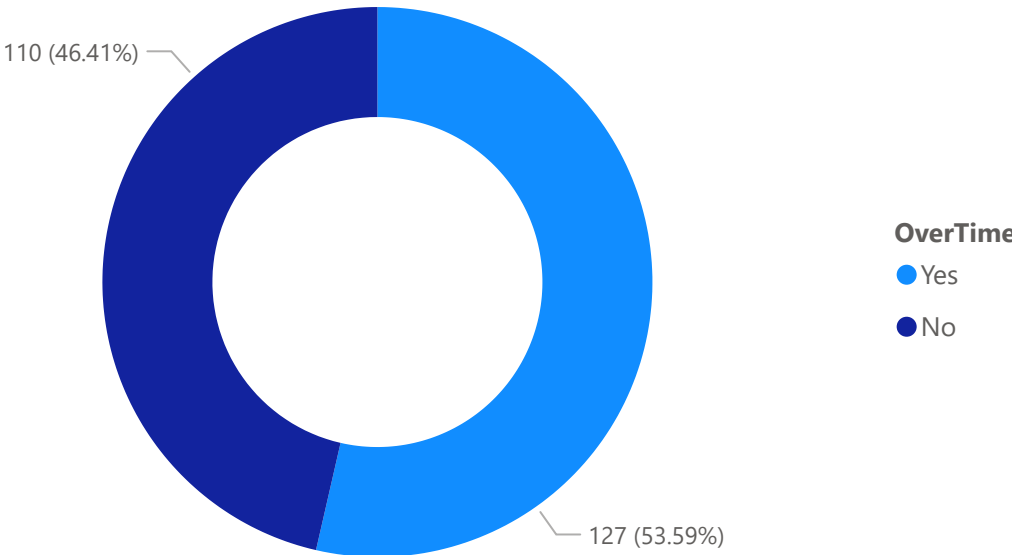

Attrition

No

Yes

Overtime Impact on Attrition

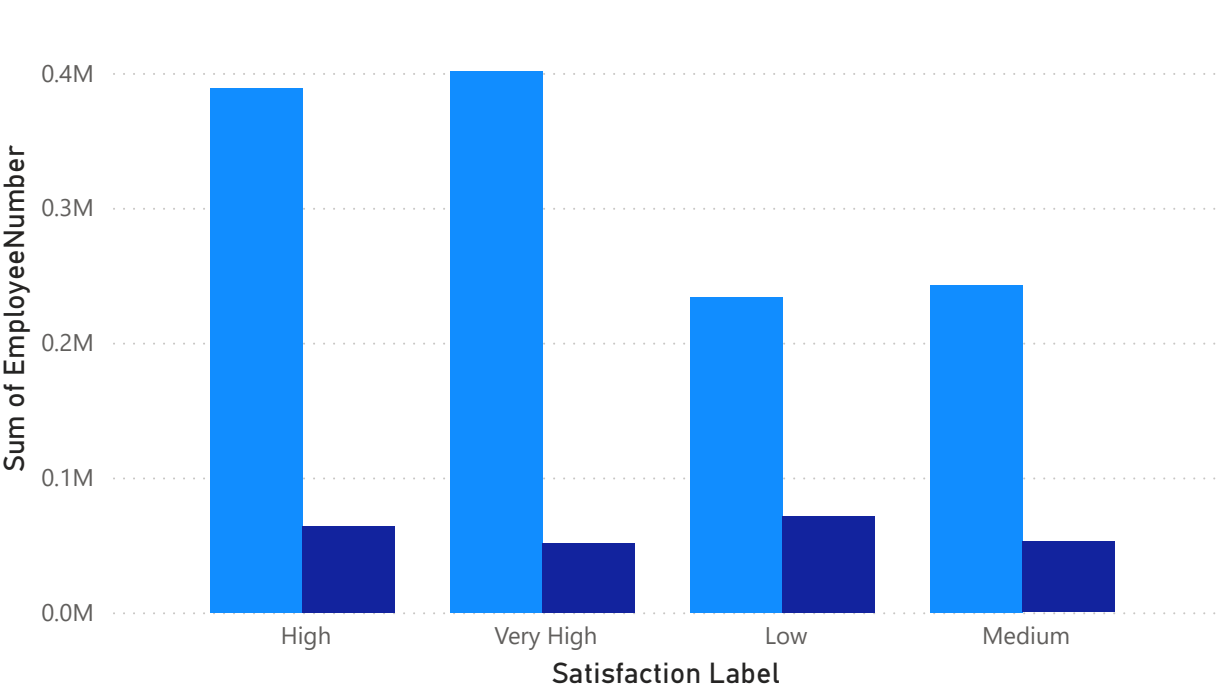

Attrition by Job Satisfaction

Attrition

No

Yes

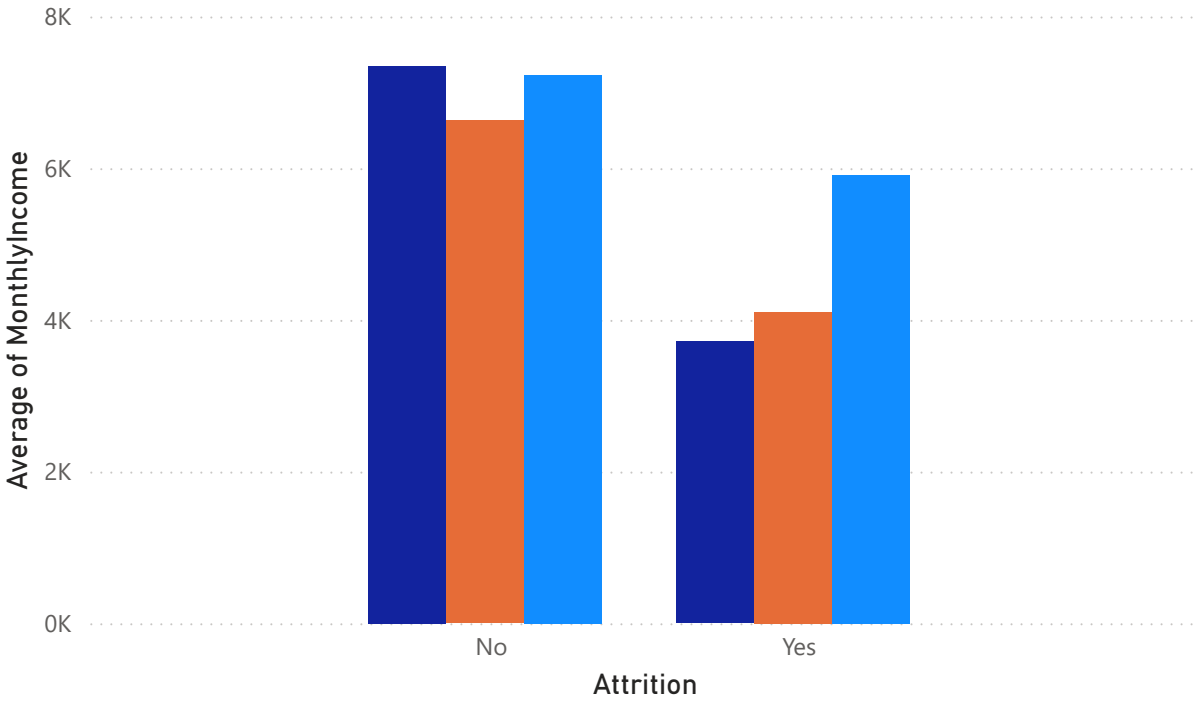

Avg Salary by Attrition

Department

Human Resources

Research & Development

Sales

AI-Powered Workforce Retention Dashboard

🔴 HIGH RISK ALERT

Sales department shows 20.6% attrition rate linked to overtime and low satisfaction.
Recommended Action: Reduce overtime and improve retention incentives immediately.

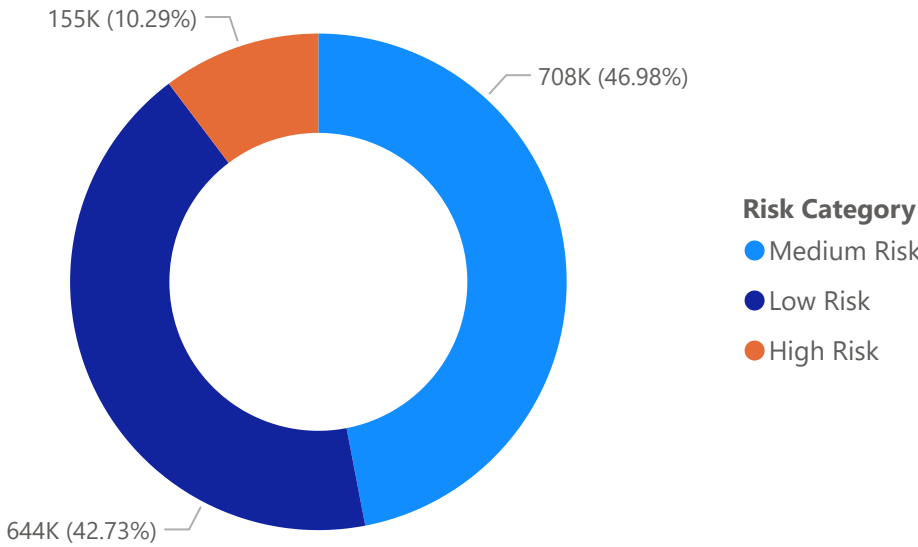

🟡 MEDIUM RISK

R&D department has high employee count but moderate attrition. Monitor salary growth closely.
Recommended Action: Introduce career development programs and salary reviews.

🟢 RETENTION SUCCESS

HR department shows lowest attrition rate.
Recommended Action: Study HR retention practices and apply across other departments.

Workforce Risk Distribution

📊 KEY FINDINGS

- Overall attrition rate: 16.12%
- Employees working overtime are 3x more likely to leave
- Low satisfaction employees (score 1-2) show highest exit rates
- Young employees (18-27) leave most frequently
- Sales department needs immediate attention